Global Economy: Fifty-one large Eurozone banks are leaving themselves exposed to a sudden change in interest rates and may need to aside more capital against that risk, the European Central Bank said on Monday. The ECB is preparing to start scaling back its monetary stimulus after years of ultra-low interest rates and massive bond purchases. Eurozone investor confidence index rose unexpectedly to 29.7 in October from 28.2 in September, survey results from think tank Sentix showed Monday. The score was forecast to fall to 28.0. Sentix said the economic momentum continues in the currency bloc. Germany's industrial production expanded the most since July 2011, signaling a strong growth in the third quarter. Industrial output grew 2.6% month-on-month in August, reversing a revised 0.1% fall in July. China's service sector growth slowed in September, as a private survey showed Monday that an index for the sector fell to the lowest in 21 months. The Cain General Services Purchasing Managers Index (PHI) slipped to 50.6 in September from 52.7 in August.

Global Equities: China stocks hit 21-month highs on Monday after a week-long holiday. The sentiments were boosted by cut in banks' reserve requirement ratio. Investors also caught up with the latest upmove in the global stocks and kept the Chinese indices in a winning mode.

Indian Economy: The RBI's Consumer Confidence Survey showed that the response to the current perception of the general economic situation showed 34.6% as "improved" as of September 2017, down from 44.6% in September 2016. The RBI survey show that more people see consumer confidence declining, business sentiment in manufacturing dipping, inflation on the rise and growth easing. According to the survey, 40.7 percent of the respondents said that the economic situation has worsened in September 2017 as compared to 25.3% in September 2016.

Equity Markets: Local indices witnessed small gains on first trading day of the week. The Nifty failed to settle above the psychologically important 10,000 mark after hitting an intraday high above that level. The Sensex pared gains after hitting its highest intraday level in two weeks in morning trade. The Nifty pared gains after hitting its highest intraday level in more than two weeks in morning trade. The Nifty pared gains after crossing the psychologically important 10,000 mark in morning trade.

Corporate News: Worldwide IT spending is projected to total $3.7 trillion in 2018, an increase of 4.3% from 2017 estimated spending of $3.5 trillion, according to the latest forecast by Gartner, Inc. Enterprise software and IT services continue to exhibit strong growth, with communications services continuing to drive the majority of spending. Software spending is projected to grow 8.5% in 2017, and it will grow another 9.4% in 2018 to total $387 billion. IT services spending is on pace to grow 4% in 2017 to reach $931 billion, and increase 5.3% in 2018 to reach $980 billion. Domestic passenger vehicle sales rose 11.32% to 3,09,955 units in September, from 2,78,428 in the same month last year, according to data released by industry body Society of Indian Automobile Manufacturers (SIAM). Car sales soared around 7% to 2,08,656 units. Motorcycle sales also jumped by 7% to 12,69,612 units. Sales of commercial vehicles jumped by a massive 25.27% to 77,195 units in September. Vehicle sales across categories registered a spurt of 10% to 24,90,034 units, from 22,63,620 in September 2016.
